

A workshop with SANDY BRECHIN on the 20th of March 2016, venue – Chapel Lawn Village Hall.

Sandy Brechin is one of Scotland's best known accordionists, famous for his lightning-fast playing and hilarious on-stage humour. He has developed his own unique approach to the art of accordion playing and his innovative style is instantly recognisable: a combination of slick, incredibly fast finger-work on the melody and a revolutionary method of syncopation on the bass. Sandy was the first in Scotland to play professionally the small 48 bass size of accordion, which is now pretty much his trademark. Despite its small size and range, Sandy gets a huge sound out of it.

Workshop for Beginners – Intermediate / Advance, with or without an accordion. £50.00 per person.

Sandy is a highly experience piano accordion tutor with a long history of teaching, both privately and for a variety of organisations in the UK and around the world. In 1996, Sandy founded his own record label Brechin All Records, which has now grown into one of Scotland's most successful independent folk music labels.
